

'Let us sing'

Andrew Sutton

Intro: G/C/D/ G/C/D/

Though the world <sup>G</sup> may be full of sorrows and pain, <sup>C</sup>

And the sky <sup>D</sup> full of thunderous cloud,

And we seem to see nothing but shadows and rain, <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup>

What's to stop us from singing out loud, <sup>D</sup>

And raise our voices determined and proud? <sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>

Let us sing, <sup>G</sup> ooh ooh ooh, let our voices in harmony ring, <sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>

Let us sing. <sup>G</sup>

Though we all may have moments of doubt and despair, <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup>

When we feel that we're striving in vain, <sup>D</sup>

We can sing out proudly with the power of a prayer, <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup>

And let the strength in our voices sustain, <sup>D</sup>

And the joy in our singing remain. <sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>

Chorus

There are those in this world that would banish all song, <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup>

Their hearts full of anger and hate, <sup>D</sup>

But with the power of our voices, defiant and strong, <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup>

Let our voices combine and dictate, <sup>D</sup>

That our freedom we shall celebrate. <sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>

Chorus
